ith honor let us cel- e-brate * the Martyr Stephen's solemn feast: the first to fight for Christ and win the gleaming palm of vic-to-ry. 2. This faithful Martyr, in dispute with false, de-keit-ful witnesses, saw Je-sus, who in glo-ry stood beside the Father's own right hand. 3. O noble Martyr, hear our prayer: be quick and has-ten to our aid; obtain for us the gift we ask: may heaven's kingdom o-pen wide. 4. You gleam with high, resplendent light, for you are cleansed by streams of blood; remember us, now beg that we may share the glo-ry you received. 5. May Christ with mercy grant these gifts, who, born the Vir-gin Mother's Son, now reigns on high for ev-ermore with Father and with Spirit blest. A-men.
